2015 Channahon Parade Grand Marshall - JODI DENTON

Channahon resident Jodi Denton will be honored as the Grand Marshall for the 2015 Channahon Parade.

Jodi has been the driving force for the Parade for the past 18 years, handling everything from entry registrations to lineup. Without her dedication and determination, the Parade would have ceased to open each Sunday of the Three Rivers Festival many years ago.

Congratulations Jodi, and thank you for all you have done for the Channahon Parade!

Channahon's Three Rivers Festival and the Community

27 Years! From a community meeting in 1989 to this year's event, the Three Rivers Festival will have generated over $800,000 for community programs and services in the Channahon area.

These dollars come from the generous support of our corporate sponsors (listed on the back of this Schedule) and those attending the Festival. Money raised is directly reinvested in the community, with the majority of the proceeds equally received by the Festival's sponsoring organizations: Channahon Pony Baseball, Channahon Lions Club, Channahon Fire Department, and Chanooka Braves Youth Football. Members of these groups make up the majority of the Festival Committee. They are joined by other community members with everyone volunteering their time to plan and put on the event.

Other organizations receive stipends for providing workers for the Festival, and a Community Grant Program funnels still more proceeds to projects and services by government and not for profit agencies. The Channahon Police Department and Channahon Park District absorb the cost of their staff costs associated with the event, which run to hundreds of hours. Central Park is provided as the Festival's home by the Park District at no cost.

Thank You for attending Channahon's 2015 Three Rivers Festival! If you enjoy your visit, thank one of the Committee Members on the grounds during the week; they work hard to make your time at the Festival a great experience. And if you have a suggestion to help us grow and improve, please email us at three_rivers_fest@yahoo.com.
